From the Biltstraat on:

After you have taken three quarters of the Berekuil roundabout you are driving on the Biltstraat. Directly after crossing the railroad tracks you go left into the Snellenlaan. To your right you see the DTZ Zadelhoff estate. The Snellenlaan turns into the Maliebaan after a small roundabout. After you have passed the traffic lights, you go right after a few hundred meters onto the Maliesingel. Now you take the first left turn, crossing the bridge, and then you immediately go right. You are now driving on the Hieronymusplantsoen. Follow the curve to the left, then go straight on, finishing the Kromme Nieuwe Gracht. This gets you to the Pausdam. Now go right, into Achter St. Pieter. (NB: do not be bothered by 'alleen voor vergunninghouders (only license-holders)'- signs.)

Take your first right and then your first left. You have reached the Pieterstraat. VaVaVoom! Music Company is located at your right hand at no. 5. You are invited to use our parking facilities. Notify us of your arrival, and we will open the garage doors for you.

Public transport: walking from Utrecht Central Station:

As soon as you leave the main hall towards the Hoog Catharijne mall you can take the escalators down; left towards the city busses, right towards the regional busses. Go down to the right, towards the regional busses ('streekbussen'). Cross the tramway tracks and go right following the street along the Hoog Catharijnecomplex. You are passing a host of bicycle racks mostly filled with old rusty bikes. At a certain moment the cycle path turns left; so do you. In the distance you see a traffic light. Cross it; it takes you over a bridge crossing a motorway. You are now on the Mariaplaats. At the end you go right and immediately left again, into the Zadelstraat. Go straight ahead until you are literally walking underneath the 100 m high medieval Dom tower. Now you have made it to the Domplein, the tower behind you and the actual Dom church across the square. From where you stand you can see a street to the left of the Dom church, the Voetiusstraat. Follow that, and it takes you to Pieterskerkhof: to your right you will recognize the Venduhuis and the Pieterskerk church. The first street to your left now is the Pieterstraat.

Leaving Utrecht

- When you leave the front door, turn right. After 100m the street ends in a bigger street with lots of shops (Nobelstraat). Turn right.
- Go straight on, over the bridge. You're now on the Nachtegaalstraat.
- At the traffic lights, turn left to the Maliebaan.
- At the end go right, across the railroad tracks and follow the road.
- At the traffic lights, go right to the big roundabout 'berekuil. Keep right.
- This is the 'rondweg'. After a few km there are exits to Breda, Hilversum and Amersfoort. If you follow the road it will take you to the exits to Nieuwegein, The Hague, Rotterdam, Amsterdam and Arnhem.
